

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Pre-Test: Political Self and Identity

Instructions: Answer the following questions based on your understanding of the political self, political identity, and related concepts.

1. What does the term "political self" refer to?
 - A) Representation of oneself in a political position based on social interest.
 - B) Personal beliefs about politics.
 - C) Political affiliation.
 - D) None of the above.
2. Who defined politics as a social institution through which power is acquired and exercised by people in groups?
 - A) Albert Bandura
 - B) Kendall
 - C) George Herbert Mead
 - D) Jean-Jacques Rousseau
3. According to Stevens, Anglin, and Jussim (2015), what role does politics play in an individual's identity?
 - A) It has no role in identity formation.
 - B) It organizes beliefs, attitudes, and affiliations.
 - C) It is irrelevant to personal development.
 - D) It influences only political behavior.
4. How is the political self and identity developed according to Ma. Serena Diokno (1997)?
 - A) Through genetic factors.
 - B) Through socialization and learning appropriate roles in society.
 - C) Through individual introspection.
 - D) Through political activism.
5. Which theory suggests that a person can acquire learning through observation and imitation in the political context?
 - A) Cognitive Theory
 - B) Social Learning Theory
 - C) Theory of Symbolic Interaction
 - D) Theory of Political Participation
6. What does the Theory of Symbolic Interaction by George Herbert Mead emphasize?
 - A) Political hierarchy
 - B) Importance of symbols and communication in developing political attitudes
 - C) Political activism
 - D) Political ideologies
7. What is political participation according to Jean-Jacques Rousseau?
 - A) The citizen's action or activities anchored in politics
 - B) Passive acceptance of political decisions
 - C) Political neutrality
 - D) Political hierarchy

8. How does the family contribute to the development of the political self?
 - A) By encouraging political apathy
 - B) By establishing rules and authority figures
 - C) By avoiding political discussions
 - D) By ignoring political matters
9. What is the role of mass media in political socialization?
 - A) To promote political neutrality
 - B) To provide unbiased political information
 - C) To influence political attitudes and behavior
 - D) To discourage political engagement
10. What are some aspects in developing Filipino identity as discussed in the text?
 - A) Only individual attitudes and traits
 - B) Only institutional factors
 - C) Both individual attitudes and traits, and institutional factors
 - D) None of the above

Send the file to this link:

https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1flyaAieUBVyTG0SwIfSzkIFBjBHm-g2H?usp=drive_link