

Group Discussion

Objective: To facilitate a deep understanding of different philosophical perspectives on the self through collaborative dialogue.

Instructions:

1. Form Groups:
 - Divide the class into groups of 4-5 students.
2. Preparation:
 - Each student should come prepared with their 500-word self-reflection essay.
 - Familiarize yourself with the main ideas of the philosophers covered in the chapter.
3. Discussion Topics:
 - Sharing Reflections:
 - Each student will take turns reading their essay aloud to the group.
 - After each reading, the group will discuss the following:
 - What aspects of the essay resonate with you?
 - What new insights did you gain from your peer's reflection?
 - Are there any points of disagreement or differing perspectives?
 - Comparing Philosophers:
 - Compare and contrast how different philosophers view the self.
 - Discuss which philosopher's ideas align most closely with the views expressed in the essays.
 - Debate the merits and shortcomings of each philosopher's perspective.
